

HOME AND ART: CREATING, PERFORMING AND RESEARCHING HOME

Friday 1st May 2015
The Geffrye Museum of the Home, London

Programme

10.00-10.15	Registration and Introduction Richard Baxter and Olivia Sheringham Queen Mary University of London
10.15-11.00	Keynote Gill Perry The Open University Breaking and Entering the Home: Practices, Problems and Definitions in Contemporary Art
11.00-12.20	Inside Home Vanessa Marr Artist and University of Brighton/Sussex Coast College Women and domesticity: investigating common experiences and perspectives through creative collaboration. A collection of hand-embroidered dusters Sarah McAdam Photographer and London College of Communication Home is Where the Art is Laura Cuch Artist and University College London 'The Best Place in the World': a biography of home Cate Hursthouse Artist and University of Hertfordshire Unmaking the homely: de-familiarising the tablecloth
12.20-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.40	Keynote Sutapa Biswas Artist Home and Hearth / Hearth and home. Love in a cold climate
13.40-15.00	Domestic Marginality Sean Curran Curator and University College London Queer activism begins at home: the curator as activist in historic houses Janetka Platun Artist But where is home?

	Alice Correia University of Salford The House that Jack Built: Home, Identity and Legacies of Empire in the work of Donald Rodney David Pinder Queen Mary University of London 'If my house was still there': sound, memory and the destruction of home
15.00-15.20	Tea and coffee
15.20-16.40	Performing Home Jon Orlek, Mark Parsons and Cristina Cerrulli University of Sheffield and Studio Polpo Open Public Experimental Residential Activity (OPERA): Looking Back and Looking Forwards Paul Merchant University of Cambridge Who can publicise the private? Domesticity, representation and class in 'El hombre de al lado' Nadege Meriau Artist-in-residence Queen Mary University of London Home futures: exploring the Aylesbury Estate through video and sculpture Katie Beswick Queen Mary University of London The Resident Artist: Jordan McKenzie's Council Estate Practice
16.40-17.00	Closing Remarks Harriet Hawkins Royal Holloway University of London Collaboration and curation

Please click here to register for this event via Eventbrite. For more details please contact o.sheringham@qmul.ac.uk or r.baxter@qmul.ac.uk. The seminar will end at 5pm, but please let us know if you would like to join us for an informal dinner afterwards at a local restaurant.

The City Centre
Researching city lives and connections

The Leverhulme Trust
